

BRITISH VALUES: DEMOCRACY

Southborough High school

Democracy: The UK General Election

- Democracy is a key British value
- The British Democratic system has been copied by countries around the world
- Some countries are dictatorships and do not have democratic elections. Can you think of any?
- The UK general election takes place every 4 years

Can you name these former leaders?

Nick Clegg

Ed
Miliband

David
Cameron

Natalie
Bennett

Nigel
Farage

Which political party do they represent?

Nick Clegg

Liberal
Democrats

Ed
Miliband

Labour

David
Cameron

Conservative

Natalie
Bennett

Green
Party

Nigel
Farage

UKIP

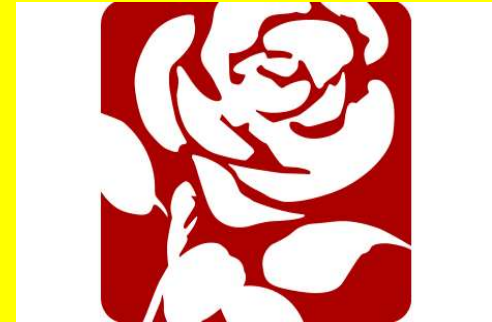

Which symbol represents which party?

THE CONSERVATIVES

LIBERAL
DEMOCRATS

THE LABOUR PARTY

THE GREEN PARTY

UKIP

Can you match the policy to the political party?

Lowering of university tuition fees
A mansion tax on wealthy property owners
End rid off energy prices
Help people get on the housing ladder

LABOUR

An exit from the European Union
Tougher stance on immigration
Abolish inheritance tax
Scrap the target of 50% of school leavers going to university

UKIP

Maintaining the cuts-
reduce the deficit
Lower taxes
Deliver the best schools
A referendum on Europe

CONSERVATIVES

Put the public first
Be more environmentally friendly
Restore public services

GREEN

A fair, free and open society
More democracy and choice
A strong and sustainable economy

LIBERAL DEMOCRATS

Who would you vote for?

PARTY	NUMBER OF VOTES
CONSERVATIVES
LABOUR
LIBERAL DEMOCRATS
GREEN PARTY
UKIP

What next?

- Find out about the different parties by looking at their websites
- Watch the news to find out about what is happening
- Watch leaders debates to learn more about their policies and leader's personalities. If they happen!
- Find out about the political parties in your local area-who is your local Member of parliament? What is his or her policies? Find out more about your local MP by visiting www.theyworkforyou.com